ANSWERED ON:25.02.2003
VACANCIES IN NSG
V. SAROJA

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are a number of vacancies in National Security Guard;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) the time by when the vacancies are likely to be filled up;

(d) the steps taken by the Government in this regard;

(e) whether the Government propose to appoint women personnel in NSG; and

(f) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D.SWAMI)

(a) to (d): N.S.G. is a 100% deputationist Force. The vacancies arising from time to time are filled by getting personnel on deputation from the Army and other Central Police Forces. At present there are 910 vacancies in various ranks in NSG. Due to sanction of new raisings in other Central Police Forces, there is temporary short fall in sending personnel on deputation to NSG. All the Central Police Forces and the Army have been advised by the Ministry to sponsor sufficient number of personnel for deputation in NSG.With enhancement of NSG allowance, it is expected that more and more personnel will now be willing to joint this Force on deputation.

(e) & (f): Yes, Sir. The Government have agreed to induction of women personnel on deputation for some kinds of duties like Sky Marshals etc.
